

A New Year Letter for the Girl, For You, For My Love — Who Owns My Heart

Happy New Year, my beautiful baby 🌸❤️✧

As this New Year begins, the first thing on my mind is you. Always you. I wish I could start it holding you tight, looking into your eyes, feeling your warmth. But instead, I'm starting it missing you... loving you... and counting the days until we're finally together. ❤️

Another year with you but not with you baby, this distance is hurting me so much 😞 Some days it feels so heavy on my heart, like no matter what I do, something is missing—and that something is you. I miss your presence, your voice, your laugh, and even the little silences we share. Distance really hurts, but my love for you is stronger than all the miles between us ❤️

There are nights when I think about you so much that my heart feels full and empty at the same time, full because I have you, because I love you, because you are mine. Empty because I can't touch you, can't hug you, can't look at you the way I want ♥ But this distance has taught me something important—I don't just want you when it's easy. I want you always. Especially on the hard days ♥

I love you. I love you more than words can explain ♥♥

I love your hair—that soft magic I wish I could touch every day ☺

I love your forehead, made perfectly for my kisses ☺

I love your cute nose (yes, the one I always want to boop and kiss ☺)

I love your eyes, the way they pull me in every single time, especially on video calls ✨

I love your lips, and the smile on your lips—that smile that melts my heart without even trying ♥♥

I love you from top to toe, every little detail, every imperfect-perfect part of you ♥

And you know what makes me smile the most? I remember every time I ask for your photos, and how much nakhre you do ☺ We fight, I request again and again, you pretend to ignore me... and then finally you send those pics and videos. And the moment you do, I just stare at them like an idiot ☺ When you're busy and I have nothing to do, I look at those photos and videos again and again, remembering how much I had to beg for them, all the little fights we had for them—and somehow, I end up loving you even more ♥♥

I replay our memories just to feel close to you—our late-night chats, our silly laughs, the way time disappears when I'm with you 🌙✧ You don't even realize how much comfort you give me just by being you. You are my peace, my safe place, my strength.'

Some of my favourite moments are those moments when I look at you, thinking of what I did to deserve someone like you in my life and you look over at me, catching my stare and you smile...and I feel like the luckiest person in the universe

This New Year, I promise you this—no matter how far you are, my heart stays with you. It chooses you every single day. When I wake up. Before I sleep. Always ♡ I don't wish for money or big things. I just wish for us—more time together, more laughter, cozy movie nights, beach walks hand in hand, trips where we make memories instead of saying bye!

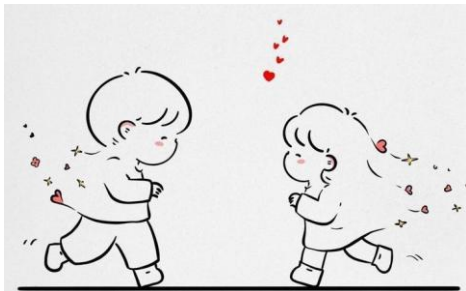

Until that day comes, I'll keep loving you honestly, deeply, with my whole heart 💞 I'll keep loving you, believing in you, and standing by you no matter what. Thank you for loving me, for being patient with my anger, and for being you. You are my favourite person, my dream girl, my everything ♥

Happy New Year, love of my life ✨

May this year bring us closer, stronger, and even more in love. Count every second with me, because I am counting them too 😊♥♥
